Um número crescente de pessoas passa cada vez mais tempo no seu ambiente de trabalho, permanecendo por longas horas em frente à secretária. Com a evolução de conceitos de partilha de ambiente e posto de trabalho diários ou semanais, bem como, as crescentes alternativas de trabalho remoto, torna-se imprescindível o uso de secretárias ajustáveis a estes contextos dinâmicos.

Diante desta realidade em constante transformação, e visando otimizar a produtividade e os padrões de ergonomia no local de trabalho, as entidades responsáveis procuram cada vez mais soluções inovadoras de mesas com altura ajustável.

É neste contexto, que a RAIO apresenta a linha LIFT, uma solução ergonómica, robusta e com design contemporâneo, especialmente desenvolvida para responder às exigências atuais de mesas de escritório ajustáveis em altura.

A growing number of people are spending increasingly more time in their work environment, remaining at their desks for longer hours. With the evolution of concepts such as shared daily or weekly workspaces and the growing alternatives of remote work, the use of adjustable desks to these dynamic contexts becomes indispensable.

Facing this constantly changing reality and aiming to optimize productivity and ergonomic standards in the workplace, responsible entities are increasingly seeking innovative solutions for height-adjustable desks.

It is in this context that RAIO introduces the LIFT range, an ergonomic, robust, and contemporary design solution specially developed to meet the current demands for height-adjustable office desks.

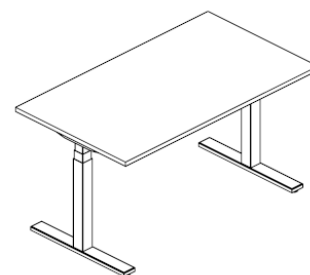

De plus en plus de personnes passent des temps dans leur environnement de travail, passant de longues heures devant leur bureau. Avec l'évolution des concepts de partage d'environnements et de postes de travail quotidiens, ainsi que les alternatives croissantes au travail à distance, l'utilisation de bureaux réglables pour ces contextes dynamiques devient essentielle. Face à cette réalité en constante évolution, pour optimiser la productivité et les normes ergonomiques sur le lieu de travail, les entités responsables recherchent de plus en plus de solutions innovantes de bureaux réglables en hauteur. C'est dans ce contexte que RAIO présente la gamme LIFT, une solution ergonomique et robuste au design contemporain, spécialement développée pour répondre aux exigences actuelles des bureaux réglables en hauteur.
